

CHINESE STUDIES ALUMNI ASSOCIATION
UNIVERSITY OF SYDNEY

NEWSLETTER AUGUST 2006.

Dear Fellow Alumni

Following the highly successful 50 Year Alumni Reunion on 11 August, the next Alumni event will be the Annual General Meeting and talk on 19 September. All are welcome to come and hear Rory Macpherson speak on “Finding One’s Feet in China: One Graduate’s Experience”

Fifth Floor Common Room, MacCallum Building, University of Sydney, 5.30 for 6 pm,
Tuesday 19 September

Rory Macpherson completed his BA/BCom at Sydney University in 2001 with majors in Chinese, Economics and Government and International Relations. Since then he has spent a total of four years in China working in international trade and, most recently, investor and public relations.

Refreshments will be served.

Rory’s talk will follow a short Annual General Meeting of the Chinese Studies Alumni Association, commencing at 6pm.

We welcome new members of the Alumni Association and invite you to join the Association Council and help plan more exciting activities.

Xiexie dajia!
