Be a future leader in architecture

To be eligible, applicants must:
- be of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander descent
- qualify to enter a Bachelor of Design in Architecture or Bachelor of Architecture and Environments in Semester 1, 2016, and complete an online application form with supporting documentation.

In addition to academic ability, applicants will be selected based on their leadership potential. To demonstrate this, you will need to submit a personal statement addressing your leadership strengths and suitability for the scholarship.

You will need to:
- describe what leadership experiences you have had
- explain how these experiences have contributed to your personal development
- identify the qualities that make you an ideal candidate for the Campus Infrastructure Services Scholarship in Architecture Leadership

The scholarship will be awarded on the recommendation of the Dean and the sponsoring organisation, and based on an assessment of academic merit (i.e. the applicant’s performance in the NSW HSC or equivalent), their online application and interview.

Payments shall be made in equal installments after 31 March and 31 August 2015 (i.e. the Census dates of each semester), subject to satisfactory academic performance (a minimum of credit average [65%] each semester).

Scholars must not hold any other primary scholarship simultaneously.

The University of Sydney Campus Infrastructure Services Scholarship in Architecture Leadership is a unique opportunity for enrolling Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander students. Be placed in a structured placement program, receive industry mentorship and be inspired to new heights of leadership in the field of Architecture.
