This unit permits the development of your own individual design project.

The project may involve a practical issue you have a personal interest in; a theoretical project which you frame yourself; a current competition, or any design project that has demonstrable educational value. (The project may not, however, be commercial, or office, work).

Collaborative work (pairs or threes) is encouraged.

PARTICIPATING STAFF INCLUDE
Tom Heneghan, Harry Margalit, Glen Hill, Jan Fieldsend
