16. How Far has the Design of Dwellings Improved: Comparison of Two Groups of Houses from the Viewpoint of Design for the Ageing Society Satoshi Kose, Isao Kumano & Akio Matsuzaki, Building Research Institute and Asahi Chemical Industry, Japan	157	Urban Design and Planning	249
17. “Serendipity” and Sustainability: Environmental Innovation in the Corporate Sphere Mardie Townsend, School of Nutrition and Public Health, Deakin University, Australia	163	24. The Contribution of Urban Planning to the Psychological Sense of Community and Neighbouring Behaviours in Two Perth Suburbs Ros Morrow, Lyndall Steed & Emily Rice, School of Psychology, Curtin University of Technology, Australia	163
Indigenous People-Environment Research		25. Planning Suburban Retail Facilities: Economic Rationalism and Planning Donald Dunbar, School of Environmental Design, University of Canberra, Australia	259
18. Aboriginal People-Environment Research: A Brief Overview of the Last 25 Years Paul Memmott, Aboriginal Environments Research Centre, Department of Architecture, University of Queensland, Australia	173	26. The Effects of Environmental Features on Users’ Fear of Crime in Urban Parks Su-Hsin Lee, Graduate Institute of Architecture and Urban Planning, Feng Chia University, Taiwan	265
19. The Connection between Gunitjmara Aboriginal People and their Environment: The Case for Complex Hunter-Gatherers in Australia Heather Buih, Department of Archaeology, Flinders University of South Australia, Australia	197	27. Park Visitors’ Environmental Attitudes and their Acceptance of Direct vs Indirect Management Strategies Jing-Shoung Hou, Su-Hsin Lee & Chang-Chan Huang, Department of Landscape Architecture, Tunghai University, Department of Tourism Management, Providence University and Graduate Institute of Architecture and Urban Planning, Feng Chia University, Republic of China	275
Interior Environments		28. Social Play in Urban Public Spaces Quentin Stevens, Faculty of Architecture, Building and Planning, University of Melbourne, Australia	285
20. Learning in the Design Office: The Appearance and the Reality Joanne Cys & Lynn Chalmers, Louis Laybourne Smith School of Architecture and Design, University of South Australia, Australia	213	Emerging Methods in Environment-Behaviour Research
21. The Meaning of Home and Workplace David Turner, Department of Architectural and Design Science, University of Sydney, Australia	221	29. Eliciting Mental Models of Landscape Processes: The Transect Method Helen Ross & Nick Abel, Centre for Resource and Environmental Studies, Australian National University, and Division of Wildlife and Ecology, CSIRO, Australia	295
Heritage Conservation		30. The Measurement of Environmental Awareness and Behaviour: A Further Examination of the Construct Validity of the Environmental Appraisal Inventory Toshihiko Sako, Sonomi Hirata & Robert Gifford, School of Human Sciences, Waseda University, Japan, and Department of Psychology, University of Victoria, Canada	311
22. Highway Construction(s) and World Heritage Values: Roads Taken and Roads Forsaken in the Cultural Landscapes of the Wet Tropics and the Antipodean Imaginary Joseph Reser, Joan Bentrupperbaumer & Sandra Pannell, School of Psychology and Sociology, James Cook University, Australia	229	23. Graceland and Bachelard: Pop Culture and Place Cynthia Mohr, College of Communications and Fine Art, University of Memphis, USA	241

31. A Qualitative Analysis of Fortitude Valley Based on People's Autobiographical Memory 319 Keyword Index
 Mary Ganis, School of Architecture, Interior and Industrial Design, Queensland University of Technology, Australia

Design Computing Approaches to Environment-Behaviour Research

32. A Feasibility Study on Virtual Reality-Based Evacuation Time Compared to a Traditional Calculation Method 333
 Naai-Jung Shih & Chih-Hsiang Yang, Department of Architecture, National Taiwan University of Science and Technology, Republic of China
33. Perceived Quality of Computer-Simulated Environments 341
 Bernd Rohrmann, Simon Palmer & Ian Bishop, Department of Psychology, University of Melbourne, Strategic Data, Melbourne, and Centre for Geographic Information Systems and Modelling, University of Melbourne, Australia
34. Computer-Assisted Evaluation of Access to the Built Environment 353
 Catherine E. Bridge & Simeon J. Simoff, School of Occupational Therapy and Department of Architectural and Design Science, University of Sydney, Australia

Architectural and Environmental Education

35. Urban Environmental Education: A Community Psychology Perspective 367
 Iain M Butterworth & Adrian T Fisher, Department of Psychology, Victoria University of Technology, Australia
36. Participatory Problem Solving Using Spatial Technologies: Implications for Environmental Education 377
 Laxmi Ramasubramanian & June Logie, Department of Geography, University of Auckland, New Zealand
37. Architectural Education for Architectural Practice Revisited 387
 Martin Symes and Andrew D. Seidel, School of Architecture, University of Manchester, England and College of Architecture, Texas A&M University, USA
