HASSELL Masterclass

The Masterclass project is the development of a new sustainable workplace in the city.

The project team will develop the brief based on sustainable initiatives, site location, heritage and scale.

Students will integrate new workplace concepts and these will be used to inform their outcome.

Students will have access to tutors from the disciplines of planning, landscape architecture, interiors and architecture to test their ideas.