PROGRAMME: Symposium on Transnational People-Movement and Social Rights and PhD Workshop

The University of Sydney | Law Lounge, New Law Building, Eastern Avenue | 12-13 December 2016

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Day 1: 12 December</th>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Day 2: 13 December</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 8.45-9.15am| Welcome / Registration
Gaby Ramia and Nicola Piper                                                                 | 8.45-9.15am| Welcome / Registration
Gaby Ramia and Nicola Piper                                                                 |
| 9.15-10.15am| Keynote Address 1
Chair: Nicola Piper
- Huck-Ju Kwon and Ju Ryung Cho: ‘Social Protection for Migrant Workers in the Developmental Welfare State’
Morning Tea                                                                 | 9.15-10.15am| Keynote Address 3
Chair: Gaby Ramia
- Stephen Castles: ‘The “Migration Crises” of 2014-16: Significance for Migration and Employment in Australia’
Morning Tea                                                                 |
| 10.15-10.30am| Keynote Address 2
Chair: Gaby Ramia
- Elsa Underhill: ‘Reinstating Employment Regulation in the Horticulture Sector: the Need for a Multi-Pronged Approach to Capture Diverse Sources of Labour Exploitation’                                                                 | 10.15-10.30am| Keynote Address 4
Chair: Nicola Piper
| 11.30am-1.00pm| Session 1: Refugees, Asylum Seekers and ‘Illegal’ Migration
Chair: Michelle Peterie
- Ellen Finlay, Louise St Guillaume and Patricia Jane Muscat: ‘Disabled Mobility: Forced Migration, Offshore Processing and Duty of Care in Australia’
- Amy Maguire and Amy Elton: ‘Should Refugees be Entitled to Self-Determination? Exploring a New Means of’                                                                 | 11.30am-1.00pm| Session 4: Migrant Workers B
Chair: Laurie Berg
- Anna Boucher: Measuring Worker Rights Violations in Practice: The example of Temporary Work (Skilled) (457) Visas in Australia’
- Anja Wessels, Madeline Ong and Baby Foo: ‘Labour Exploitation Among Migrant Domestic Workers in Singapore’                                                                 |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Session 2: Forced Labour and Human Trafficking</th>
<th>Session 5: Understanding and Responding to Migration</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1.00-2.00pm</td>
<td>Lunch</td>
<td>Lunch</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| 2.00-3.00pm  | Wayne Palmer: ‘Victims of Trafficking, Civil Justice and Institutional Objectives’
              | Tina Davis: ‘Addressing Forced Labour in Australian Supply Chains’           |
| 3.00-3.15pm  | Afternoon Tea                                 | Vote of Thanks | Afternoon Tea |
| 3.15-4.45pm  | Session 3: Migrant Workers A
              | Chair: Louise Boon-Kuo
              | Laurie Berg and Bassina Farbenblum: ‘Remedying Migrant Worker Exploitation in Australia – Lessons from the 7-Eleven Wage Panel’
              | Magdalena Arias Cubas: “‘The Roots are Here but the Work is There” – Economic Opportunities and Challenges for Indigenous Migrant Farmworkers in Mexico and the US’
              | Nicola Piper: ‘Migration and Global Social Regulation: Advancing the Rights of Migrant Workers’ |
| 5.00-8.00pm  | Conference Drinks and Dinner
              | The Royal Hotel, Abercrombie Street Darlington
              | PhD Workshop
              | Facilitators: Lesleyanne Hawthorne and Nicola Piper |

Promoting the Status and Rights of Refugees in International Law
Louise Boon-Kuo: ‘Irresponsible Policing’
Berzenn Urbi, Alan Barnard and Yvonne Osborne: ‘It’s More Than Just Economics: The lived Experience of Filipino Nurses Seeking to Migrate Overseas’