JAPAN IN SYDNEY PROFESSOR SADLER & MODERNISM 1920-30s

SYMPOSIUM

The symposium will bring together Australian and Japanese art historians and scholars to reconsider the political and cultural conditions of modernism during the 1920s-40s. Held in conjunction with the Australian Centre for Asian Art & Archaeology, speakers include Roger Butler (National Gallery of Australia), Prof John Clark (The University of Sydney), Prof David Walker (Deakin University), Dr Kuwahara Noriko (Seitoku University, Chiba Japan), Silas Clifford-Smith, Sandra Marker (Director, Australian Sogetsu Teachers Association Inc), Dr Ajioka Chiaki and Maria (Connie) Tornatore-Loong (co-curators).
