WORLDS WITHIN
Association for the Study of Australian Literature Conference 2014

WORLDS WITHIN
This conference invites engagement with Australian literature in its relations to the world. It will be linked with Robert Dixon’s ARC DORA project, Scenes of Reading: Australian Literature and the World Republic of Letters.

CONFERENCE CONVENERS
Brigid Rooney
Department of English
University of Sydney

Brigitta Olubas
School of the Arts and Media
University of New South Wales

SPECIAL PANEL:
Convener: Robert Dixon, Chair, Australian Literature, Department of English, University of Sydney

This panel explores how Australian literature as both a field of cultural production and an academic discipline with a cultural-nationalist legacy might best be located in world literary space while seeking at the same time to provincialise such overarching concepts as world literature.

For further information or to view the program, visit: http://sydney.edu.au/arts/australian_literature/conferences/worlds_within.shtml

Contact: liliana.zavaglia@sydney.edu.au

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

VILASHINI COOPPAN
(University of California Santa Cruz) and author of Worlds Within: National Narratives & Global Connections in Postcolonial Writing.

KIM SCOTT

SUVERDINI PERERA

9-12 JULY,
JOHN WOOLLEY BUILDING
REGISTRATION FEE
Full: $380
Early Bird: $350 (before 1 April 2014)
Students/Unwaged: $150