

World Without Walls East and West 21st Century Perspectives

The Oriental Society of Australia

The University of Sydney, Australia

December 3-7, 2006

The Fiftieth Anniversary of the Oriental Society of Australia (OSA) will be celebrated with an International Conference. The format will focus on the relevance of Asian Studies in the 21st century. The aim of this international and interdisciplinary conference is to bring together scholars from all over the globe, not only to discuss problems related to the study of history, culture and institutions of Asian countries but also to exchange news and views with colleagues in the humanities and arts, particularly those who study cultures derived from Europe, the Americas and Australasia.
