

Application for admission into a research postgraduate award course in 2011

Please read this information before completing your application for admission.

General information

- This application form is only for domestic students. Only Australian citizens, Australian permanent residents and citizens of New Zealand should use this form to apply. Other applicants should contact the International Office on (+612) 8627 8300 or at io.info@sydney.edu.au for application materials and assistance.
- Complete the application form using BLOCK LETTERS, and where required, write clear crosses in the appropriate boxes.
- Please ensure that the information on your application is complete, that all of the required documentation is included and that the application is legible. Incomplete or illegible applications may be delayed.
- Admission is competitive and will depend upon the availability of resources.
- Continued enrolment is subject to demonstrated satisfactory annual progress.

Supporting documentation

- You are required to provide documentation in support of this application. If you do not attach all of the documents required by the faculty your application may not be considered. The documents you may have to provide include:
 - * evidence of your residency status,
 - * proof of change of name,
 - * academic transcripts for your qualifications,
 - * evidence of English proficiency,
 - * information about your record of exclusion,
 - * information about your technical, professional or other qualifications,
 - * a statement detailing your availability for study and your research plan (if you are applying for a part-time PhD),
 - * information about your research and publications.

There is information on the application form about the circumstances under which you must provide documentation. You should provide originals wherever possible, especially of academic documents such as transcripts and English test result notices. Faculty and Student Centre staff can sight original documents and copy them for you so that you need not submit originals with your application. If you have questions about which types of documents are acceptable in support of your application, or whether or not original documents can be returned to you after your application has been processed, you should contact your faculty.

- If your supporting documents are not in English you must provide translated versions of those documents in addition to certified copies of the originals. These translations should be official. Some examples of the types of translations which may be accepted are those produced by the Community Relations Commission (CRC), the Department of Immigration and Citizenship (DIAC), or by an accredited National Accreditation Authority for Translators and Interpreters (NAATI) translator of at least 'Translator' or 'Level 3' status. Please note that if you are providing copies of translations, rather than originals, those copies must also be certified.

Making inquiries and submitting your application

- You may direct any inquiries you have about your application to the postgraduate adviser of the faculty concerned. Contact information for faculty offices is available from the University's switchboard on (+612) 9351 2222 or the website at sydney.edu.au/about/faculties_schools.shtml
- Copies of this and other direct application forms are available on the University's website at sydney.edu.au/current_students/student_administration/admissions/application_forms.shtml
- This form should be forwarded to the faculty in which you wish to enrol no later than the closing date. Closing dates vary between faculties, so be sure to check before applying.
- You will be advised by mail of the result of this application as soon as possible, and if it is successful, the enrolment procedures you are to follow.

If you are applying for part-time candidature in a PhD you must attach a statement which indicates that you will be substantially free to pursue your candidature. The statement should show that you will have sufficient time available to complete the course within the maximum period allowed for a part-time PhD enrolment. It should also show that you will plan and carry out the intended research, and for the purposes of this research, that you will be under the supervision and control of the University. If you are employed, your statement should include a declaration from your employer confirming that you will be permitted the time required to effectively pursue your studies.

Have you applied for an Australian Postgraduate Award? Yes No

Tertiary qualifications: All applicants must complete this section. You should provide original academic transcripts in support of your application unless this tertiary study was attempted at the main campus of the University of Sydney. If your documents are not in English you must also attach an approved translation.

Name of tertiary qualification	Honours class	Graduation date	Institution attended

English proficiency: If you have not completed a tertiary qualification in Australia and your qualifications were obtained from a university or other institution where the language of instruction was not English, you must provide evidence of English proficiency, eg, IELTS, TOEFL or a result from another approved test. You are advised to discuss English proficiency requirements with faculty staff before applying, if you have studied overseas.

Record of exclusion: Please answer the following questions about your academic history. If the answer to any of these questions is yes, please provide full details and copies of any relevant documentation.

Have you ever been excluded or suspended from a course at a university or other tertiary institution for any reason? (Yes/No)

Have you ever been asked to show cause why your enrolment in any course should not be suspended/terminated? (Yes/No)

Have you ever been asked to explain unsatisfactory progress in any course? (Yes/No)

Other information: Please use this section to provide information about your technical, professional or other qualifications, details about your original research activities and publications, and any other information you consider to be relevant to your application. You may attach additional information if this space is insufficient.

Declaration: I declare that the information submitted in this application is correct and complete, and I agree that the University may obtain official records from any university or other institution previously attended by me. I undertake to advise the Faculty immediately of any change to the information submitted in this application. I am aware that it is the policy of the University that if my program of advanced study and research should result in the lodging of a thesis it can be made available for use immediately, either to be read, photocopied or microfilmed.
