CONFEREE PROGRAM
28 November, 2013

Registration:
from 8:30

Conference Welcome:
9:15
TBD
Room S249

Keynote Address:
9:30
Professor Iain McCalman
Room S249

Morning Tea, 10:40-11:10

1st Session, 11:10-12:40
Religion and Historical Thinking
Room S224

Chair: Jamie Dunk

Islam Constructed: How the Muslims in Bima construct their Historical Islamization?
Muhammad Adlin Sila, Australian National University, ACT

Politics & Piety: Thomas and George Boleyn in the English
Reformation
Lauren McKay, University of Newcastle, NSW

'What does Gough Need? Jesus!': Holy Hippies and National Public
Culture in 1970s Australia
Hugh Chilton, University of Sydney, NSW
Representations

Chair: Professor Robert Aldrich

Claudia Dorsic, University of Queensland, QLD

Ost und West and the Construction of German-Jewish Orientalism at the Fin-de-siècle
Lynne Swarts, University of Sydney, NSW

Magical Trails and Leprechaun Habitats: the Revival of the Irish Fairy
Hannah Irwin, Macquarie University, NSW

The Politics of Emigration

Chair: Chris Holdridge

Advertising Emigration to South Australia: Information Dissemination; the Promulgation and Impact of Advertising the colony, 1829–1857
Marilyn Arnold, Flinders University, SA

Refugee Riots in Detention Camps, Hong Kong
Carina Hoang, Murdoch University, WA

Aliens in their own Land: Manipulation of the Term ‘Alien’ in Australian Law and History
Peter Prince, Australian National University, ACT

Lunch, 12:40-13:40
2nd Session, 13:40-15:10

Indigenous History and Oral History

Chair: TBD

Parallels on the Periphery: Aboriginal History and Local History
Louise Prowse, University of Sydney, NSW

The Murdering Gully Massacre
Alycia Nevalainen, Australian National University, ACT

History, Sources, Material Culture

Chair: Peter Hobbins

Portals to the Past; the Value of Ephemera as Anchors of history
Pieter Koster, University of Sydney, NSW

Rethinking Architecture: History, Meaning and Identity
Jennifer Tran, Curtin University, WA

The Future of the History Text
John Townsend, University of Sydney, NSW
Women and Motherhood  Room S249

Chair: Micaela Pattison

The History of the 'Institution' of Motherhood
Sophia Brock, University of Sydney, NSW

'Cougars: A Modern Phenomenon – or just Business as Usual?'
Kymme Laetsch, University of Newcastle, NSW

Trailblazing Women in the Law: Social Network Analysis and Oral History
Louise Baker, Australian National University, ACT

Afternoon Tea, 15:10-15:30

3rd Session, 15:30-17:00

Medicine and Treatment  Room S224

Chair: Sean Cosgrove

Emil Kraepelin as the Father of Schizophrenia - How (not) to Write the History of Psychotic Disorders
Georg Repnikov, University of Sydney, NSW

The Invention and Evolution of the Disease Concept of Addiction: Tracing an Historiography of the Ideation of Substance Dependency
Richard Hammersley, Murdoch University, WA

Of Angels and Men: The Australian Field Ambulance on the Kokoda Track
Jan Mcleod, University of Newcastle, NSW

Intellectual History 1  Room S225

Chair: Sarah Kennedy Bates

Xiong Shili’s Early Thought
Yu Sang, Australian National University, ACT

From Utopias to Heterotopias: Exploring the Changing Relationship between Non-place and Suburbia in Visual Culture.
Fiona Harman, Curtin University, WA

Conference Reception: Race and Ethnicity in the Global South Centre 17:00

End of Day 1
29 November, 2013

Registration: from 8:30

Discussion Panel: History Across the Disciplines  9:00
Professor Alison Bashford, Chair

Panelists:
Dr. Martin Gibbs, Department of Archaeology
Dr. Michael Beggs, Department of Political Economy
Professor Will Christie, Department of English

Morning Tea, 10:30-11:00

4th Session, 11:00-12:30

History and Education  Room S224

Chair: Dave Earl

Situating the Professional Learning of Secondary School Teachers of History in the Landscape of History Education
William Lewis, Monash University, VIC

Engaging With Digital Networked Technology: What It Means To History Preservation
Diane Spencer-Scarr, Curtin University, WA

Crowd-sourcing Credence? Historical Evaluation and Social Computing
James Goulding, University of Sydney, NSW

http://usydhistoryconference.wordpress.com

Intellectual History 2  Room S225

Chair: TBD

How to Realise Philosophy: The Situationist International between 1960 and 1962
Anthony Hayes, Australian National University, ACT

Time in Institutional Analysis of Politics - Comparing the Development of Punctuated Evolution Models in Historical and Discursive Institutionalisms
Kurt Walpole, University of Sydney, NSW

Consumption and Economic Growth in the Classical Economists and Marx
Alex Thomas, University of Sydney, NSW

History, Narrative, Fiction  Room S249

Chair: TBD

Making the Past Present: Tense and Temporality in Family Memoir
Melissa Fagan, University of Queensland, QLD

The Tangled Web - History and Fiction
Christine Stanton, University of Sydney, NSW

The 'History of Experience in the Imagination' or the 'Most Beautiful Lies': Fictive History and the Penal Stations of New South Wales
Tamsin O'Connor, University of Sydney, NSW

Lunch, 12:30-13:30
5th Session, 13:30-15:00

The Cold War in International History  Room S224

Chair: Gabrielle Kemmis

‘Australia has no Right to be Represented’: Australian-Soviet Political Relations in the Early Cold War Period
Belinda Quick, University of Adelaide, SA

The Suppression of the Project Vista Report: Motivations behind Power Grabs in the US Defence Forces
Brenna McIntosh, Royal Melbourne Institute of Technology, VIC

The End of Isolation: Rapprochement, Globalisation, and America’s China Trade, 1972–1979
Lizzie Ingleson, University of Sydney, NSW

Governance, Identity, and Tourism  Room S225

Chair: Jacqui Newling

‘You Only Get Two Days as an Australian to be Patriotic – Australia Day and Homebake’: Australian Music Festivals and Cultural Nationalism, from Sunbury to Soundwave
Rebecca Hawking, Macquarie University, NSW

‘In the Darkness We saw Ghosts’: Early Cinema Travelogues, Dark Tourism and the Convict Stain
James Findlay, University of Sydney, NSW

Telecommunications and Governance in Early 20th-Century Australia
Rick Umbach, Australian National University, ACT

6th Session, 15:30-16:30

Imperialism and Culture  Room S224

Chair: Matt Kennedy

Territorial Possession: Mapping the Movements of a South African Sporting Geography
Carla Lever, University of Sydney, NSW

Rising Nation, Old Colonial Dreams: French India and India’s independence
Emmanuelle Guenot, University of Sydney, NSW

The Boundaries of Decency  Room S249

Chair: Assoc. Professor Kirsten McKenzie

The Uses of Biography: Telling Stories about the Life and Death of Hildegarth
Micaela Pattison, University of Sydney, NSW

‘The Evil of the Age’: The New York Times and the Politicisation of Abortion in 1860s and 1870s New York City
Danielle Thyer, University of Sydney, NSW
Australian Urban and Social History  Room S225

Chair: Hugh Chilton

Nomads in the Silver City: The Role of Itinerant Professionals in Broken Hill Repertory Society 1945-1970
Janet McGaw, University of Sydney, NSW

Crisis and Change: an Exploration of Social History in Fremantle’s
West End
Michelle McKeough, Murdoch University, WA

Closing Remarks  16:30  Room S249

Conference Dinner (RSVP Required)  18:30 for 19:00
Darbar Indian Restaurant, 134 Glebe Point Road

End of Day 2