

The Centre for Medieval Studies
Study Day

The Twelfth-Century Renaissance : People, Texts, Ideas

Friday May 14, 2010
Woolley Common Room
University of Sydney

- 9.00-9.15 Welcome (John Pryor and Juanita Ruys)
- Chair John Crossley
- 9.15-9.45 Michael Fagenblat (Monash) Maimonides : Jewish Law as Philosophical Education
- 9.45-10.15 Sharon Davidson (Sydney) John of Salisbury : Dreams and the Twelfth-Century Renaissance
- 10.15-10.30 Discussion

10.30-10.45 Coffee Break

- Chair John Pryor
- 10.45-11.15 David Juste (Sydney) The Obscure Motivations of the Translators
- 11.15-11.45 John Crossley (Monash) Pandora's Box in Aladdin's Cave : Gerard of Cremona and the Translators
- 11.45-12.00 Discussion

12.00-12.15 Coffee Break

- Chair John Ward
- 12.15-12.35 John Pryor (Sydney) The Libellus de expugnatione Terre Sancte per Saladinum : An excitatorium for the Third Crusade?
- 12.35-12.55 James Kane (Sydney) The Libellus de expugnatione Terre Sancte per Saladinum : Latinity and Sources
- 12.55-1.15 Keagan Brewer (Sydney) The Libellus de expugnatione Terre Sancte per Saladinum : The Sacred Geography
- 1.15-1.30 Discussion

1.30-2.15 Lunch

- Chair Clare Monagle
- 2.15-2.45 Juanita Ruys (Sydney) Example, Experience, Conduct : The Twelfth-Century Self
- 2.45-3.15 John O. Ward (Sydney) Alan of Lille and the End of the Renaissance
- 3.15-3.30 Discussion

3.30-3.45 Afternoon Tea

- Chair Juanita Ruys
- 3.45-4.15 Clare Monagle (Monash) Peter Waldo : Heresy and Orthodoxy
- 4.15-4.45 Jason Taliadoros (Monash) Blurring the Lines : Master Vacarius and the Interaction of Law and Theology, 1140 to 1179
- 4.45-5.00 Discussion
- 5.00-5.15 Concluding Remarks

