

WORLD
CITIZENS
ASSOCIATION
<http://www.worldcitizens.org.au>

Human Security and Global Governance

A mini-conference co-hosted by the Centre for Peace and Conflict Studies,
University of Sydney and World Citizens' Association (Australia)

With the election of the Rudd government, Australia has entered a new era of re-engagement with the United Nations. Speakers will discuss some exciting proposals that could strengthen global efforts to promote peace and human security, including a look at Australia's contribution.

Wednesday 3 September 2008
2:00 – 5:00 pm

H R Carne Lecture Theatre
(R M C Gunn Building, Regimental Crescent)
University of Sydney

Keynote Address: Canberra Commission and Elimination of Nuclear Weapons

Professor John Langmore, Department of Political Science, University of Melbourne and National President, United Nations Association of Australia

Panel 1: Proposal for a United Nations Emergency Peace Service (UNEPS)

Chair: Emeritus Professor Stuart Rees, Director, Sydney Peace Foundation

Speakers: Kavitha Suthanthiraraj, Global Action to Prevent War, New York

Annie Herro, UNEPS Project, Centre for Peace and Conflict Studies

David Penklis, former Senior Executive in UN Peacekeeping Field Operations and Headquarters Department of Management

Panel 2: Strengthening Global Governance

Speakers: Australia, NATO and a 'Community of Democracies'

Assoc. Prof. Chris Hamer, President, World Citizens Association (Australia)

Campaign for a United Nations Parliamentary Assembly

Vinay Orekondy, Campaign Director, World Citizens Association (Australia)

For more information contact: Centre for Peace and Conflict Studies, arts.cpacs@usyd.edu.au or telephone 02 9351 7686.