The Centre for Peace and Conflict Studies invites you to
The 25+ CPACS Anniversary Forum and Dinner

on Wednesday 25th February 2015

CPACS, launched on 16 May 1988, is celebrating 25+ Years with a:

Looking Back & Looking Forward: Peace with Justice Forum

Followed by CPACS Celebratory Dinner.

The Forum

Looking Back: 1.45 to 3.15pm
Looking Forward: 3.45-5.15pm
Venue: John Woolley Common Room, John Woolley Building, University of Sydney.

No entry fee.
Refreshments will be served

RSVP (for Forum and/or Dinner) by 18th February:
arts.cpacs@sydney.edu.au or call 02 9351 7686.
For more information contact:
Peter King at Peter.King@sydney.edu.au or call: 0422 647 025.

Reception and Celebratory Dinner

Hosted by Yola Lucire and Bruce Childs, with celebrity guest speaker, Meredith Burgmann*

When: 6.30 for 7pm Start
Venue: 345 Edgecliff Rd, Edgecliff (Street parking only) $20 entry fee at the door.

*Meredith Burgmann: BA, Usyd, 1969; MA Usyd, 1973 (Foreign Policy); PhD, Macquarie, 1981 (Industrial Relations), is a former President of the Legislative Council of NSW and former Councillor of the City of Sydney (2008-12). She is currently President of the Australian Council for International Development (ACFID) and heartbeat of the Emies Awards. She also has or had, a very large ASIO file for activism beyond the call of civic duty as envisaged at Newscorp, and is the co-patron of the West Papua Project at CPACS.
The Forum Program

Note: Speakers have been informally commissioned to observe various suggested time limits for their presentations so that chairpersons can ensure an open discussion period of 30 minutes at each session.

1.45-3.15pm Looking Back (Down Memory Lane, with Lessons)

Acknowledgement of Country

Welcome to CPACS Anniversary: Jake Lynch, Director CPACS.

Chair Introduction: Peter King, Inaugural President, CPACS Council.

Panel: Stuart Rees, former Director, CPACS.
   Keith Suter, former President, CPACS; ICJ; Global Directions, etc.
   Mary Lane, founder, SSCIPS*.
   Roger Wescombe, former Director, International House; CPACS Council.

Open discussion.

3.45-5.15pm Looking Forward (Alternative Futures for CPACS)

Chair: Ken Macnab, President CPACS.

Panel: Jake Lynch, Director CPACS.
   Meredith Burgmann
   Wendy Lambourne, Deputy Director CPACS
   Patricia Garcia, CPACS Council Member.
   Paul Duffill, Visiting Scholar University of Sydney, CPACS Council Member.

Open discussion.

*Staff Student Committee for the Introduction of Peace Studies