Scales of Economy
Laureate Research Program in International History
University of Sydney

Thursday 28-Friday 29 July 2016
University of Sydney

Day 1
Thursday 28 July
Kevin Lee Room,
Level 6, Lobby H
Quadrangle, University of Sydney

9.30-12.30
Economic Internationalism
Chair: Glenda Sluga (Usyd)
Quinn Slobodian (Wellesley), ‘Ordoglobalism: The Invention of International Economic Law’
Nicholas Mulder (Columbia), ‘Contesting the Economic Weapon: Sanctions and the World Economy, 1919-1926’

14.00-17.30
Economic Spaces after Empire
Chair: Garritt Van Dyk (Usyd)
David Engerman (Brandeis), ‘Scaling Up the Indian Economy: Superpower Aid and Nehruvian Industrialization’
Alden Young (Drexel), ‘Shifting Sudan: an Economic Region between Interwar Imperialism and the Age of Development’

Day 2
Friday 29 July
CCANESA,
Level 4
Madsen Building, University of Sydney

9.30-12.30
From the Local to the National to the Global
Chair: Shane White (Usyd)
Josh Specht (Monash), ‘Standardization and globalization, case study of a cattle town’
David Ekbladh (Tufts University), ‘Making the National, Global: US Internationalists and the American Public Look at the Depression World’.
Madeleine Dungy (Harvard), ‘World Spanning: The German use of media in the First World War to track Economics’
Mircea Raianu (Harvard), ‘Debating Vernacular Capital: An Intellectual History of Corporate Power in Interwar India’
Scales of Economy
Laureate Research Program in International History
University of Sydney

14.00-17.00
Humanitarianism and the World Economy
Chair: Vanessa Ogle

Anne Rees (Sydney), ‘Lessons from Australia? Persia Campbell, International Development, and Standards of Living’

Tehila Sasson (IHR, London/Emory), ‘The Business of Aid: Humanitarianism, Capitalism, and Multinational Corporations in the 1970s’

Closing discussion, a future volume.

SPECIAL EVENTS

Pre-Workshop Program, All Invited

Wednesday 27 July
“Reading the Archive: What is Economic History?”
Graduate Seminar, 3-5 pm
Western Tower Room
University of Sydney
Featuring Melanie Aspey from the Rothschild Archive (London), Quinn Slobodian, and Tehila Sasson

RECEPTION, 5-6 pm
Laureate Rooms, L237

Sydney Ideas Public Lecture, 6-7.30 pm
Public Lecture and Reception, Sydney Ideas, Law School
6-7.30 pm
Law LT 024
Level 0, Sydney Law School Annex
University of Sydney