Phillip David Jack generously bequeathed funds to the University of Sydney. These funds are available to award a student majoring in Arabic Language and Cultures.

Under the terms of The Philip David Jack bequest, the Department of Arabic Language and Cultures will award 1-2 prizes (scholarships) each year to a second year undergraduate student. The prize (scholarship) covers the tuition of one senior unit of study in language or culture related to the Arabic language and cultures major in the second or third year of studying.

1) In order to be eligible to apply for this scholarship, you must be:

   I. Enrolled as a second year undergraduate student and currently taking at least one Arabic language or culture unit in the Department of Arabic Language and Cultures at the University of Sydney.

   II. Declare your intention to continue with an Arabic Language or Cultures major.

   III. Plan to enroll in an Arabic language or culture unit of study during your third year of study;

   IV. Have an average mark of 75% in Arabic Language or Cultures and 70% WAM for all other units.

2) Up to two prize(s) will be awarded annually (subject to funding availability) on the basis of academic merit with the approval of:

   I. The Head of School of Languages and Cultures; and

   II. The Chair of the Department of Arabic Language and Cultures.

3) A scholarship may not be awarded to a person currently in receipt of a scholarship awarded by the University of Sydney valued at $6,000 or above per annum holding other primary scholarships for the same period of time.

4) In order to apply for this scholarship, you must submit the application form with all the materials required as listed below by 1 April 2016. Results will be announced before 1 May 2016.
