We are the only Australian law firm based in more than one State practising solely in insurance law.

The role:

This newly created position recognises the importance of business analytics in making decisions and using data to enhance our client engagement, client service and pricing models.

This role works directly with our Business Insights Manager and closely with our Finance & Operations, Business Development & Marketing, and IT teams. The role suits a business intelligence professional who is passionate about new opportunities, has a strong attention to detail, and is passionate about learning and evolving in their career.

Key responsibilities include:

You will:

- manage and deliver monthly KPI reports that give meaningful insight into business and client specific performance;
- collaborate with the BDM, Finance and IT teams to deliver financial and client performance data;
- lead the preparation and quality assure a large volume of monthly and adhoc key client specific financial and performance reports;
- identify opportunities to integrate multiple data sources in order to provide better insights into the business;
- oversee weekly data QC procedures; and
- support data and system implementation projects as needed.

To be considered you will:

- have extremely strong Excel and data management skills;
- have a passion for the power of data in driving business performance;
- be familiar with integrating a myriad of data sources and applying thoughtful analysis to derive valuable insights;
- need excellent problem solving and decision-making skills; and
- have strong written and verbal communication, financial literacy and project management skills.

Why work for us?

- Work with a firm that understands its purpose and has a singular focus on the insurance industry.
- Be part of a culture that recognises your individual contribution and focuses on relationships and diversity to achieve career goals.
- Be part of a team with ambition to create a new standard of insights for the legal industry.
- Be rewarded with a competitive remuneration package.

At Wotton + Kearney we pride ourselves on fostering a supportive and collegiate culture. To join the team register your interest by submitting your cover letter and resume to join.us@wottonkearney.com.au.
