   - Any other elective units of study included under the International Business major in subsequent years.

* For students who commenced from 2008, Political Economy (ECOP), Government and International Relations (GOVT) will be considered Faculty of Arts units. The number of units students can complete from another faculty (non- Economics and Business) are restricted (refer to individual degree rules for details). For example, students in the combined Law programs cannot complete any units from outside of the Faculty of Economics and Business as electives for this major.

† Students who complete language units must meet the prerequisite requirements for these units of study as set out in the Faculty of Arts Handbook. The number of units students can complete from another faculty (non- Economics and Business) are restricted (refer to individual degree rules for details).
Note. Senior units of study can only be counted towards the requirements for one major or extended major. Senior units cannot be "double counted" towards two majors. For example, a senior Korean Studies language unit cannot count towards both a major in International Business and a major in Korean Studies.

For further details regarding this major, please refer to the handbook of the year you commenced your degree.
