Graduate Placement
Master of Management

“My educational passions were in chemistry and computer science, but I wanted to learn how the business world ran so I decided to complete a Master of Management. I am now a consultant in a field where I can apply my broad range of interest.

“My experience at the University of Sydney Business School allowed me to find what I was truly interested in and discover my career path. The knowledge and skills I now have will stand me in good stead in the workforce and help me build a successful and fulfilling life.”
