“My mentor, Stevie, is really helpful. He’s very easy to talk to. The program has helped me get a feel for what it’s like to work in a corporate environment. Stevie’s also given me advice for the different steps I can take to follow my career goals. I think PACE is a really good opportunity.”

Ria (pictured), PACE mentee at QBE Insurance Group.
Benefits

As a PACE mentee, you will:

• Improve your job application and interview technique.
• Gain valuable experience in your preferred area of work.
• Develop networking and social skills in a professional environment.
• Grow your contacts.
• Showcase your skills and knowledge in the workplace.
• Learn new skills, knowledge and experience for your resume.
• Receive continual support throughout the program.

How to apply

PACE Mentoring is open to anyone with disability at all stages of your career. For example, you could be a school leaver, TAFE student, university graduate or looking for a career-change.

PACE Mentoring runs twice per year. April to July and September to December.

Registering is easy. Simply complete the online form available on our website www.and.org.au.

“Meeting Simon changed everything. He changed my perspective and I’m so surprised how the program has worked out. He opened my eyes to a world of employment.”
Curtis, PACE mentee at Programmed.