

THE GILLES KRYGER HONOURS SCHOLARSHIP IN FINANCE

Conditions of Award

BACKGROUND

The scholarship established in 2006 by a donation placed in trust from alumnus, Mr. Gilles Kryger and the University of Sydney Business School. The scholarship is intended to support meritorious research in Finance at the undergraduate honours level.

THE AWARD

The Gilles Kryger Honours Scholarship in Finance is awarded under the following conditions:

- 1) The scholarship shall be titled 'The Gilles Kryger Honours Scholarship in Finance'.
- 2) The scholarship is valued at $15,000 and tenable for one year. An amount of $7,500 will be paid at the commencement of the recipient's honours year and the final instalment of $7,500 will be paid on submission of their honours thesis in early November.
- 3) The scholarship is open to students who successfully gain entry to Finance Honours and will be completing their honours year in full-time study under the administration of the Business School.
- 4) The University of Sydney Business School will award the scholarship based on academic merit in the Students finance specialization. If there are two students of equal academic standing, the scholarship will then be awarded to the student with the highest average in pass coursework units completed in their undergraduate degree at the time of selection for the Gilles Kryger award.
- 5) Selection will be made by academic staff within the Discipline of Finance at the discretion of the Chair of Discipline.
- 6) The scholarship may not be awarded to a student who is in receipt of other funding specifically awarded for the student's honours year or in receipt of a scholarship of equal or higher value.
- 7) The scholarship holder is liable to return funds in full if they withdraw from their honours year.
