FINANCE HONOURS SCHOLARSHIP

Conditions of Award

1. Funded by the Discipline of Finance, The University of Sydney Business School. The title of the scholarship is the ‘Finance Honours Scholarship’.

2. The Scholarship is intended to promote excellence in research study in the discipline of Finance.

3. The scholarship is valued at $5,000, tenable during the recipient’s undergraduate honours year. Up to five full scholarships may be allocated each year and at the Academic Honours Coordinator’s discretion, these may be awarded as full or half value scholarships.

4. Candidates are considered when applying to the Honours program with the Discipline of Finance, The University of Sydney Business School with a completed bachelor degree from either the University of Sydney or another tertiary institution. The scholarship is open to local and international students.

5. Awarded annually to candidates commencing undergraduate Finance Honours, the recipient must be completing their honours year in one year full-time study.

6. Selection is based on proficient performance in coursework study, examination results and each candidate’s Honours application for admission to the Finance Honours program.

7. Full scholarships may not be awarded to students in receipt of other scholarship funding, specifically awarded for the student’s honours year or scholarship funding of primary, equal or higher value, without renouncing that award.

8. The scholarship holder is liable to return the funding in full if they withdraw from their honours year.

9. The scholarship is administered by the Discipline of Finance, The University of Sydney Business School.