Brief Synopsis of position

At KPMG, we're committed to providing an open and friendly environment for our graduates that offers long-term growth, constant challenge and generous rewards.

It's a philosophy that will continue throughout your career with us and touch every stage of your development.

We call it 'Live. Learn. Discover. Achieve.'

As one of the world's leading professional services firms, we cut through complexity to help organisations in over 140 countries to work smarter, grow and prosper. Here in Australia, we employ around 5,200 people across 13 offices and work with some of the most high profile public and private names.

KPMG offers graduate, vacation, cadetship and co-operative recruitment programs to students and university graduates. Nationally, KPMG is one of the largest employers of graduates, vacationers and cadets and co-ops.

Our open and friendly culture encourages you to explore and share new ideas, and build a successful and individual career at your own pace. At KPMG, we're open-minded about people. Whilst our standards are high we're interested in more than just academic records. We're looking for talented people, team players and progressive thinkers who can communicate their ideas with passion.
