Notes

- i. The Economics major is offered through the School of Economics in the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences.
- ii. LAWS1103 and LAWS1109 are zero credit point units of study.
- iii. This program of study is meant to be a guide only. Students are able to undertake the required units of study and elective in different sequences to that listed above. Students should note that this example has been developed using 2012 unit of study offerings and there is no guarantee that the units listed will be offered in the same semesters in subsequent years.
- iv. Certain units of study listed above may also be offered in Summer or Winter School sessions.

After the successful completion of these three years, students will graduate from the Bachelor of Commerce degree and transfer into the single Bachelor of Laws degree to complete their remaining two years of study. For these final two years of study, students will be administered by the Sydney Law School.

This information is correct as of the 14 September 2011. Students are advised to check the University of Sydney Business School website for the most up-to-date information regarding units of study and other requirements for the degree and majors.
