GRADUATE DESTINATION REPORT 2009

FACULTY OF ECONOMICS AND BUSINESS

This report was compiled using data from the 2009 Australian Graduate Survey which captures information on the destination of University of Sydney graduates approximately four to six months after they complete their final year of study. This report can be used to give an indication of the numerous directions that graduates take after completing their undergraduate degree. While the AGS obtains information about the start of graduates' career paths, it does not provide information on where they eventually find themselves in terms of life-long professions and objectives. Please note that completion of the AGS is voluntary and the statistics do not represent the entire body of students graduating for that year (the response rate is approximately 50% of all University of Sydney graduates in the given year).

- There were 1331 participants (of 3093 total graduates) in the 2009 Graduate Destination Survey .
- Within 4-6 months after graduation, most graduates were employed in the private sector (78%) compared to the public sector (19%).
- 85% majority of graduates were employed in Australia.
- Of those graduates working fulltime, 73% were satisfied with their job and were not seeking a new role.
- Graduates used a range of methods to locate their employment. Almost a third (30%) found employment through family or friends. A further 22% made use of advertisements placed on the internet. 11% of graduates found employment via university or careers services.
- The average working week for graduates in this faculty was 38 hours.
- The median gross annual salary for graduates was $43,000 (N=693).
- Students who completed undergraduate study reported a median gross annual salary of $37,500 (N=213).
- Graduates who completed post-graduate study reported an median gross annual salary of $52,000 (N=480).
