THE UNIVERSITY OF SYDNEY PRESENTS
A TASTE OF PARADISE: IN CELEBRATION OF IRANIAN CULTURAL HERITAGE

DATE AND TIME
Saturday, 12 October 2013
12:30pm-5:30pm

LOCATION
Centre for Classical and Near Eastern Studies of Australia (CCANESA)
Level 4
Madsen Building F09
Eastern Avenue
The University of Sydney

ENQUIRES AND RSVP
Yasmina Wicks
ywic3402@uni.sydney.edu.au

ADMISSION
Bookings are essential for this event
NEAF members $5
Non members $10
Forward payment by 4 October

PROGRAM
Persian Music Ensemble
– Literary exchanges between Iran and the West
  by Dr Laetitia Nanquette, The University of New South Wales
  Book Launch: Orientalism Versus Occidentalism
– The Visual Heritage Research Project: Iran Narrated by Historical Postcards
  by Dr Omid Tofighian, The University of Sydney
– Was Cyrus an Elamite? The Elamite Heritage of Persia
  by Dr Javier Álvarez-Mon, The University of Sydney

Persian Afternoon Tea
– The University of Sydney Iranian Archaeology PhD Showcase
– Book Launch: Sufism in the Secret History of Persia
  by Dr Milad Milani, The University of Western Sydney
  Launched by Emeritus Professor Garry W. Trompf
  Chair, History of Ideas, The University of Sydney

Persian Music Ensemble
Organised by: The Department of Archaeology and the Council of the Near Eastern Archaeology Foundation (NEAF) at the University of Sydney in association with the Association of Iranica in Australasia Inc.

Name ____________________________________________ Number of Tickets __________________
Address ____________________________________________
Email ____________________________________________ Phone Number __________________

Please include a cheque (payable to: The University of Sydney) or provide Credit Card details below

Please detach this bottom section and send to the address provided.

ABN: 15 211 513 464  CRICOS number: 00026A