A Conservation Management Plan is a special study report that clearly identifies and describes why a place is important and then proposes an action plan, policy or strategy to maintain that importance.

LEGEND:

- Conservation plan completed
- Conservation plan being drafted (tender / construction)
- Heritage impact statement prior to demolition
- Future conservation plan
- Registered heritage buildings not managed by the University
- University buildings without heritage significance