Alumni Relations at the University of Sydney

The University of Sydney is a large and diverse institution with a broad range of disciplines. We thrive on the strong shared identity that binds us together as a community, and it is this identity that shapes our strategic vision.

Our mission is to create a mutually beneficial Alumni Relations program that will strengthen and engage the alumni community and support the University’s vision for years to come.

The Alumni Council

Alumni Council members are members of Convocation. The role of the Alumni Council is to:

- Support the University and its faculties in their endeavours to grow alumni engagement across the University community;
- Effectively facilitate connectivity between alumni, the University community and its stakeholders;
- Provide opportunities for alumni to develop a lifelong connection with the University, commencing when a student enters the University.
