

SYDNEY LAW SCHOOL FOUNDATION INTERNATIONAL SCHOLARSHIPS - UNDERGRADUATE

ABOUT THE SCHOLARSHIPS:

The Sydney Law School Foundation established a limited number of scholarships in 2011 to support outstanding international students undertaking the following programs with the Sydney Law School:

- Combined Law

ELIGIBILITY

Applicants must:

- Have received an unconditional offer of admission to a Combined Law program.
- Have a minimum IELTS or equivalent for:
 - Combined Law: 7.5 IELTS with no band below 7.0
- Be commencing study at the University for the first time.
- Be a citizen of a country other than Australia or New Zealand, and may not hold permanent residency in Australia.
- Not be in receipt of any other tuition scholarship.

CONDITIONS OF AWARD

The Sydney Law School Foundation International Scholarship is worth AU$10,000 payable in two equal instalments in late March and late August in the first year of study.

COMMENCEMENT DATE

Scholarships are awarded on the basis that the student will commence study in the academic year for which it is offered, and for the program in which a place has been offered in the Sydney Law School.

DURATION

The scholarship is limited to one year.

LEAVE

Scholarship holders may in special circumstances take leave of absence from their scholarship for a maximum of one semester. Students must check their visa conditions before applying for leave; and they must apply for permission in advance of taking such leave.

Requests to hold the scholarship part-time will only be approved under exceptional circumstances, such as a medical condition, which limits the student's capacity to undertake full-time study. Such requests must be submitted in writing to the Sydney Law School.

TRANSFERRING SCHOLARSHIPS

These scholarships cannot be transferred from one institution to another, nor from the Sydney Law School to another faculty in the University of Sydney.

TERMINATION OF SCHOLARSHIPS

Scholarships will be terminated:

- if the student fails to meet the eligibility requirements
- if the student fails to make satisfactory progress in the program
- when the student ceases to be enrolled as a full-time student, or discontinues their study
- if the University determines that the student is guilty of serious misconduct, including, but not limited to, having provided false or misleading information
- if the student does not resume study at the end of a period of approved leave
- if the student is granted permanent residency in Australia. Students must immediately advise the International Office and the Faculty Office about any changes to their visa status

HOW TO APPLY

Please submit your scholarship application with supporting documents with your application for admission to the International Office. The personal statement should set out your academic and extra-curricular or professional achievements, and outline why you want to undertake your chosen course and what you hope to achieve following graduation. If you have already applied, please send your scholarship application directly to the Law School.

To download the application form:

Combined Law

<http://sydney.edu.au/law/fstudent/undergrad/scholarships.shtml#SLSFoundation>

For further information about applications for admission to a postgraduate coursework degree, please see the International Student Office website: <http://sydney.edu.au/internationaloffice/>

PERSONAL STATEMENT SUBMISSION

If you are sitting an Australian HSC or IB and will be applying through UAC, you will need to submit your personal statement to the Law School directly. Please address it to the following:

Marketing & Admissions Manager
Sydney Law School
New Law Building (F10)
Eastern Avenue
University of Sydney NSW 2006

Please note that the information contained within this flyer may be subject to change. Please contact the Sydney Law School to confirm the relevant details.

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT

T +61 2 9351 0351
F +61 2 9351 0200
E law.info@sydney.edu.au
sydney.edu.au/law