Call extended for proposals for ePortfolio Forum

ePortfolios Australia is a professional network which aims to support the use of eportfolios in Australia and beyond through professional development activities and the sharing of resources, ideas and practice.

The call for proposals for the 2013 ePortfolios Australia Forum has been extended until 20 May 2013.

The Forum will be held on 3 October at the University of Canberra and is based on the theme "Digital Identities, Footprints and Networks".

Proposals of 150 words or less to present or to facilitate a workshop/professional conversation should relate to one or more of the following themes:

- Eportfolios supporting learning pathways
- Managing online identities through eportfolios
- Verifying evidence through eportfolios
- Getting started with eportfolios and/or changing eportfolio platforms
