Teachers’ Guild of NSW Scholarship for 2017
Sydney School of Education and Social Work

For Master of Teaching Students
(2nd Year - Internship Scholarship)

Details of Scholarship

$1000 for one year only, to a student enrolled in their second year of Master of Teaching (Internship) for 2017. The Scholarship is to support a student doing the internship in 2017.

Criteria for the Scholarship
The Scholarship is awarded to the applicant who can show evidence, through coursework and other achievements of their:

- professional approach and commitment to a career in teaching;
- potential to make a significant contribution to the profession;
- understanding of contemporary issues facing the profession;
- knowledge of schools systems and the education community;
- ability to articulate a coherent philosophy of teaching; and
- understanding of human learning and its relation to teaching approaches.

Students can self-nominate and apply for this Scholarship in writing, addressing the above criteria.

How to apply
Applications should address the criteria as follows:

- Provide a personal statement 2 pages in length addressing the criteria for the scholarship (outlined above);
- contain names of two referees who can speak of the applicant in respect to criteria; and
- supply limited supporting documentation (which may be attached). Do not submit bulky materials or work samples.

The Faculty of Education and Social Work will forward to the Teachers’ Guild of NSW up to three applications for this Scholarship. The Teachers’ Guild shall determine a winner. The Teachers’ Guild reserves the right not to make an award.

The successful recipient of this Scholarship will be invited to attend the Annual Teachers’ Guild Dinner to be held in September, 2017 where this Scholarship will be awarded.