

Unique opportunity to get on the ground floor of a fully funded multinational startup in the green energy space. We are looking for bright, energetic, and motivated software engineers to work on world-class technology that optimizes energy use in commercial buildings. We are the leading company in a multi-billion green energy market with offices in Sydney and the US. Currently, we have 25 employees. Our website is buildingiq.com

- Full time positions
- Internship opportunities (Industry Honours projects)
- Exceptional learning opportunities spanning web services, cloud computing and real time modeling/optimization
- Excellent CBD location with great views
- Young entrepreneurial and multinational culture
- Work with very smart people
- Tremendous opportunities for career growth
- Contribute to a cleaner environment
- For the full time positions, we will consider non-permanent residents only in exceptional cases

Please send your CV, cover letter, and Grade Point Average to jobs@buildingiq.com