The purpose of this Scholarship is to encourage international candidates commencing their studies in a masters program in the School of Information Technologies within the Faculty of Engineering and Information Technologies.

To be eligible, an applicant must:

- have a full/unconditional offer of study at the University of Sydney for one of the following coursework programs in Semester One 2017:
  - Master of Information Technology (MIT),
  - Master of Information Technology Management (MITM), or
  - MIT/MITM combined program
- not have commenced their studies in one of the above named programs in the Faculty, or have transferred into one of those programs from another postgraduate program,
- not currently hold another primary scholarship from the University of Sydney, and
- the recipient of the Scholarship must maintain their international student status for the full duration of the Scholarship.

Selection criteria

The Scholarship shall be awarded based on academic merit. Applicants must have achieved a minimum of a distinction average in their undergraduate studies. Their performance in IT based subjects will also be considered.

The Scholarship shall be awarded on the recommendation of the Associate Dean (Education), or their nominee and a nominated academic from the School of Information Technologies.

The Scholarship is tenable for one year only subject to satisfactory academic progress deemed to be a credit average (70%) or above each semester. Payments shall be made in equal instalments after the census date of each semester.

Deferment of the Scholarship is not permitted.

Please refer to the terms and conditions of this Scholarship for a full list of the conditions that apply.