The Margaret Hamer Scholarship for Women in Engineering was established in 2013 through the generous support of the Hamer family, to encourage prospective female students with a strong academic record to pursue further studies in Engineering at the Faculty of Engineering & Information Technologies.

To be eligible, applicants must:

- Be a Female Australian citizen or Australian permanent resident,
- be in their final year of schooling and qualify to enter and enrol in any Bachelor of Engineering Honours degree in any specialisation at the Faculty of Engineering and Information Technologies at the University of Sydney.
- not currently hold another primary Scholarship from the University of Sydney.

Selection criteria

Applicants will be assessed on their academic merit.

The Scholarship shall be awarded on the recommendation of the Associate Dean (Education) or their nominee and another academic member of staff from the Faculty of Engineering and Information Technologies as appointed by the Associate Dean (Education). The Scholarship Donor may also review shortlisted applications.

The Scholarship is tenable for a period of one year. Payments shall be made in equal instalments after the census date of each semester. The recipient must meet satisfactory academic performance requirements to maintain the Scholarship deemed to be a credit average (65%) and above each semester.

Deferment of the Scholarship is not permitted.

Please refer to the terms and conditions of this Scholarship for a full list of the conditions that apply.