The School of Information Technologies Undergraduate Scholarship is a one-year scholarship, established to encourage studies in Computer Science and Information Systems.

To be eligible, applicants must:

- Be an Australian citizen or Australian permanent resident,
- be in their final year of schooling and qualify to enter and enrol in any of the undergraduate programs offered by the School of Information Technologies including combined degrees at the Faculty of Engineering & Information Technologies at the University of Sydney, and
- not currently hold another primary scholarship from the University of Sydney.

Selection criteria

Applicants will be assessed on their academic merit. Applicants must complete an online scholarship application and include their most recent Year 11 and 12 school reports by the Scholarship closing date.

The Scholarship shall be awarded on the recommendation of the Associate Dean (Education), or their nominee and a senior academic from the School of Information Technologies. The Associate Dean (Education) shall be the Committee Chair.

The Scholarship is tenable for one year only subject to satisfactory academic progress deemed to be a credit average (65%) or above each semester. Payments shall be made in equal instalments after the census date of each semester.

Deferment of the Scholarship is not permitted.

Please refer to the terms and conditions of this Scholarship for a full list of the conditions that apply.
