The Graham Daniels Scholarship was established in 2010 to encourage higher education in the Faculty of Engineering and Information Technologies with the aim of supporting students of high academic ability who may be facing financial hardship, medical condition or living in a rural or remote area.

To be eligible an applicant must:
- Be an Australian citizen or Australian permanent resident,
- be in their final year of schooling and qualify to enter and enrol in any bachelor program at the Faculty of Engineering & Information Technologies at the University of Sydney, and
- be able to demonstrate financial need or medical disadvantage, or attend an EAS listed rural or remote area school.

Applicants cannot currently hold another primary scholarship from the University of Sydney. Combined degrees are eligible.

Selection criteria

Applicants will be assessed on their academic merit. Applicants must complete an online scholarship application and include their most recent Year 11 and 12 school reports by the Scholarship closing date.

Preference will be given to those applicants who demonstrate financial need, medical disadvantage or who attend an EAS listed rural or remote area school.

To demonstrate either medical disadvantage or financial need, you should:
- Supply a 250 word or less personal statement outlining how the Scholarship would benefit you, and
- provide evidence of either Centrelink payments or other proof of financial need, or
- a medical certificate/letter from your medical practitioner.

The Scholarship shall be awarded on the recommendation of the Associate Dean (Education), or their nominee.

The Scholarship is tenable for the full duration of the course including combined degrees subject to satisfactory academic progress deemed to be a credit average (65%) or above each semester. Payments shall be made in equal instalments after the census date of each semester.

Deferment of the Scholarship is not permitted. Please refer to the terms and conditions of this Scholarship for a full list of the conditions that apply.

Helpful tip
- Draft your responses before completing them in the online form.
- Proof-read and check the spelling of your responses before you submit your application.
