The Frances Marion Smith Scholarship in Civil Engineering was established in 2014 by alumnus Richard Smith in loving memory of his mother to assist students studying Civil Engineering within the Faculty of Engineering and Information Technologies at the University of Sydney.

To be eligible, applicants must:

• Be an Australian citizen or Australian permanent resident,
• be an undergraduate student entering their second or later year of study in Civil Engineering at the University of Sydney,
• demonstrate financial need or medical disadvantage, and
• not currently hold another primary Scholarship from the University of Sydney.

Selection criteria
Applicants will be assessed on their academic merit. Preference will be given to those who demonstrate financial need, or medical disadvantage.

To demonstrate either medical disadvantage or financial need, you should:

• Supply a 250 word or less personal statement outlining how the Scholarship would benefit you, and
• provide evidence of either Centrelink payments or other proof of financial need, or
• a medical certificate/letter from your medical practitioner.

The Scholarship shall be awarded on the recommendation of the Head of School (Civil Engineering) and Associate Dean (Education).

The Scholarship is tenable for a period of one year. Payments shall be made in equal instalments after the census date of each semester. The recipient must meet satisfactory academic performance requirements to maintain the Scholarship deemed to be a credit average (65%) and above each Semester.

Deferment of the Scholarship is not permitted.

Please refer to the terms and conditions of this Scholarship for a full list of the conditions that apply.
