

The China Interest Group

invites you to a discussion with two authors of

The Lancet Series – China and Global Health in the 21st Century

Professor Mark Stevenson
Senior Director, The George Institute for International Health

“Injury-related fatalities in China: an under-recognised public health problem”

and

Professor Dong Zhe
Deputy Director, Peking University Institute for Medical Education

“Health system reform in China”

3.00–4.30pm, Tuesday 21st April 2009

Where: Darlington Centre Meeting Room 6
School Building
University of Sydney

RSVP: To Louise Freckelton
lfreckelton@med.usyd.edu.au

