The Học Mại Foundation through the Office for Global Health (OGH) at the University of Sydney was successful in obtaining funding by the Australian Government’s Department of Education and Training through Endeavour Mobility Grants. The funding will provide for a $2,000 scholarship (plus $1,000 language allowance) for four Health Sciences students to undertake FHS Abroad (HSBH5001) in Hanoi, Việt Nam.

The Học Mại Foundation/OGH will arrange the placement in Vietnam and the scholarship of $2,000 will contribute towards the airfare, accommodation and meals. Successful applicants are required to attend a two day intensive Vietnamese language training program and pre-departure sessions arranged by the Học Mại Foundation/OGH.

The placement period will be between 30 November 2017 to 1 January 2018.

Eligibility Criteria
Applicants must:
• be an Australian citizen or an Australian permanent resident;
• be enrolled in any of the following programs at the Faculty of Health Sciences:
  o Master of Occupational Therapy,
  o Master of Physiotherapy, or o Master of Speech Language Pathology.
• be able to enrol in FHS Abroad (HSBH5001) and travel during the specified dates.

Application Submission
The application package must be emailed to: fhs.abroad@sydney.edu.au and cc to: adriana.sammartano@sydney.edu.au

The closing date is 5pm, Thursday, 31 August 2017. Applicants will be contacted to attend an interview on Tuesday, 5 September at Cumberland Campus.

Further information:
FHS Abroad: sydney.edu.au/health-sciences/current-students/fhs-abroad.shtml
Email fhs.abroad@sydney.edu.au
Học Mại Foundation
sydney.edu.au/medicine/hocmai/
Email hocmai.administration@sydney.edu.au

Application Criteria
Applications must include:
• CV with a recent photo of the applicant embedded in the document.
• Two reference letters, one from a faculty member.
• Essay: Vietnam currently faces a number of health challenges. How could your field of study contribute to addressing them? Describe how Australia can collaborate in addressing these issues in less than 500 words.