SCHOLARSHIPS FOR FHS ABROAD STUDENTS IN JUNE/JULY 2017

The Faculty of Health Sciences was successful in obtaining funding from Sydney Global Mobility at the University of Sydney to subsidise students undertaking FHS Abroad in June/July 2017. Each scholarship is valued at $2,000.

Criteria
You are eligible for a scholarship if you:
• are enrolled in an undergraduate program at the Faculty of Health Sciences;
• ARE NOT enrolled in a Commonwealth Supported Place (CSP); and
• are undertaking the international placement component of FHS Abroad (HSBH3012) in June/July 2017.

Application process
A key Graduate Attribute of all University of Sydney graduates is Global Citizenship. In 400 words or less, please describe how undertaking FHS Abroad will develop your understanding of global citizenship as a student and in your future profession?

It is an expectation of the scholarship that successful applicants will participate in future pre-departure workshops presenting as returned students.

How to apply
Applications must be emailed to fhs.abroad@sydney.edu.au (with the reference UNDERGRADUATE in the subject line) by 5:00pm, Wednesday 26 April 2017. No late applications will be accepted.

For further information on FHS Abroad: http://sydney.edu.au/health-sciences/current-students/fhs-abroad.shtml