Course Variation Information

As a general rule, the Faculty does not permit internal course transfers from one undergraduate course to another, with the exception of transferring to a lower award from Honours to Pass or from a combined degree. Students who wish to transfer to another undergraduate course in the Faculty or wider University must apply through the Universities Admissions Centre(UAC), in accordance with the instructions set out in the UAC Guide or at www.uac.edu.au.

If lodging this application after 31 March (for Semester 1) or 31 August (for Semester 2), you will be subject to financial and/or academic penalties.

Postgraduate students wishing to articulate to a higher award or exit with a lower award within the same discipline are advised to contact the course coordinator before lodging an Application for Course Variation form with Student Central.
