AUSTRALASIAN LEGAL BUSINESS

The Ross Parsons Centre was founded in 2004 to build upon Sydney Law School's excellence in commercial, corporate and taxation law. The Centre is active in undergraduate and postgraduate courses, conferences and seminars, sponsoring visits from international and Australian academics, encouraging research and building links with other institutions with similar goals. The Centre has various categories of membership which are open to academics of Sydney Law School and other institutions, and professionals in the public and private sector who are able to contribute to the work of the Centre.
