Asia Pacific Journal of Environmental Law

Volume 16

Articles

The Globalisation and Harmonisation of Environmental Law: An Australian Perspective
— Justice Brian J Preston and Charlotte Hanson 1

Catastrophic Risk, Climate Change, and Disaster Law
— Daniel A Farber 37

Scaling up Renewable Energy Exports to Address Regional Energy Poverty: Financing Techniques, Regulatory Measures and the Role of a Specialist Organisation
— Steven Geroe 55

Environmental Migration: Prospects for a Regional Governance in the Asia-Pacific Region
— Benoît Mayer 77

A Review of the International Framework for Access and Benefit Sharing of Genetic Resources with Special Reference to the Nagoya Protocol
— Abdul Haseeb Ansari and Lekha Laxman 105

Climate Change Law in Southeast Asia: Risk, Regulation and Regional Innovation
— Isabelle Whitehead 141

The Reid Constitutional Commission: The ‘Lost’ Environmental Proposals for Malaysia
— Sarah Tan Yen Ling 195

Legislation, Regulations, and Policies in Indonesia Relevant to Addressing Land/Forest Fires and Transboundary Haze Pollution: A Critical Evaluation
— Laely Nurhidayah 215

Comment

Some Reflections on the Rio+20 Conference on Sustainable Development: ‘The Future We Want’
— Luther Rangreji 241

Book Review

Law, Tropical Forests and Carbon: The Case of REDD+
— Stephanie Niall 257