OBJECT

The object of this seminar is to update Australian lawyers practising in Japan with the latest developments in Australian corporate and commercial law. Since the seminar will also deal with the specifics of the Australia-Japan business market and the implications for transnational legal practice, this seminar is also relevant to Australian lawyers interested in pursuing opportunities in Japan. Japanese lawyers interested in Australia corporate and commercial law are also welcome to attend.

ABOUT ANJeL

ANJeL (Australian Network for Japanese Law) is a collaboration among The Australian National University, the University of New South Wales and the University of Sydney. Its aim is to promote research and teaching in Japanese law and support engagement between the legal professions in Australia and Japan.

Registrants in the ANJeL Update on Australian-Japanese Law are welcome to attend for free ANJeL's academic conference "Crisis and the Law in Japan and Beyond". The conference will take place that afternoon at the same venue. For more information, visit
