SEMINAR
FDI AND CORPORATE GOVERNANCE
IN CHINA

Tuesday 24 June 2008
5:30 - 7pm

SPEAKER

Ms Vivienne Bath, Director, Centre for Asian & Pacific Law, Faculty of Law, University of Sydney

CHAIR AND DISCUSSANT

Andrew Percival
Special Counsel, Corrs Chambers Westgarth

FACULTY OF LAW,
UNIVERSITY OF SYDNEY
173 PHILLIP STREET, SYDNEY NSW 2000

FDI AND CORPORATE GOVERNANCE IN CHINA

The legal environment for business in China is changing rapidly, with the promulgation of laws in 2006 and 2007 strengthening the rights to personal property, creating a bankruptcy regime, introducing a comprehensive law on anti-competitive conduct and implementing laws designed to provide additional protection for Chinese workers. After almost 30 years of encouraging foreign investment, has the atmosphere in China moved away from the Open Door policy and towards a new form of protectionism? This seminar will address the recent changes in Chinese business-related legislation and focus on the question of Chinese government policies towards foreigners and foreign investment.

Speaker

Vivienne Bath is Senior Lecturer in Law, Faculty of Law, University of Sydney, and Director of the Centre for Asian and Pacific Law at the University of Sydney. Prior to joining the Faculty of Law, Vivienne Bath was a partner of international firm Coudert Brothers, working in the Hong Kong and Sydney offices, and specialising in commercial law, with a focus on foreign investment and commercial transactions in the People's Republic of China. She previously practised as a commercial lawyer in New York and Sydney, and worked in the Federal Office of Parliamentary Counsel as a parliamentary draftsman.

Vivienne Bath has published widely in the area of Chinese law and is a frequent participant in conferences and seminars focussing on developments in the Chinese legal regime. Her most recent publications are in the areas of Chinese corporate and foreign investment law and Chinese administrative law.

Chair and Discussant

Andrew Percival is Special Counsel, Corrs Chambers Westgarth, and is a senior corporate-commercial lawyer specialising in international trade and business law, with a long involvement and interest in China. In addition to advising on mergers and acquisitions, capital raisings including initial public offerings and project financing, Andrew also advises on a range of international trade and business law issues including anti-dumping and anti-subsidy investigations, foreign investment and cross-border transactions, joint ventures and technology transfers and licences and advising legal issues arising from WTO agreements and free trade agreements.

He is a member of the Executive of the International Law Section (ILS) of the Law Council, Co-convenor of the International Trade and Business Focus Group and a member of the Management Committee and Co-convenor of the International Trade and Business Committee of the International Law Association (Australian Branch).
