

2010 Postgraduate Lecture Timetable

Semester dates (please see inside for dates of intensive units of study)

February Semester Monday 1 March to Friday 25 June
July Semester Monday 26 July to Friday 19 November

Attendance pattern

Each unit of study is worth 6 credit points unless specified otherwise. Part-time candidates may enrol in up to 12 credit points per semester. Full-time candidates must enrol in at least 18 but no more than 24 credit points per semester (student visa holders must enrol in 24 credit points per semester).

Attendance requirements

Candidates must attend at least 70% (80% student visa holders) of classes in order to satisfy class attendance requirements. Participation in all scheduled sessions of an intensive unit is essential. Exemption may only be considered by the Unit Coordinator/Lecturer upon satisfactory evidence of compelling grounds i.e. sudden illness or serious misadventure which occur during an intensive unit. Candidates with an unsatisfactory attendance record may be refused permission to undertake assessment tasks in the unit, and must therefore discontinue the unit. Candidates cannot request for a class to be audio/video taped.

Class format

Semester-length unit = classes held over 13 weeks within one semester (one 2 hour 6-8pm evening class per week)

Intensive unit = daytime classes held over a 4-5 day period (generally between 9am and 5pm)

Session codes

February Semester: Session 1 (Feb semester-length unit), Sessions 6, 63, 7 (Feb early intensive unit), Sessions 61, 64, 65, 8 (Feb late intensive unit)

Availability of units of study

SJD, LLM, MGlobL and GradDipLaw candidates may undertake any postgraduate unit offered by the Sydney Law School (unless specified otherwise). Candidates enrolled in other award courses should refer to the Available to column to confirm the availability of a particular unit to their course. Candidates wishing to undertake a unit not prescribed for their course must first obtain permission by completing an Application for enrolment in a non-prescribed unit form.

Sydney Law School in Europe

Sydney Law School also offers units in Europe. Candidates may combine their study in Europe and Australia. For further information, please visit:

<http://sydney.edu.au/law/fstudent/coursework/LLM/index.shtml>

MALP, MIL & MLLR supplementary lecture timetables

Candidates enrolled in the above award courses should refer to the supplementary lecture timetable and unit descriptions for non-law units of study. All classes for these units will be held on Main Campus.

Candidates enrolled in other faculties

Candidates from other faculties should contact the Student Administration Office in their home faculty regarding enrolment in law units.

Reading materials

Reading materials are available via the Library e-Reserve Collection at <http://opac.library.usyd.edu.au/search/r>. Course outlines, handouts and important announcements may be available via the Web Course Tools (WebCT) site for each unit. WebCT sites are generally accessible on the first day of classes (Session 1 & 2 units). Candidates enrolled in intensive units will be notified of the availability of the WebCT site via their USyd email address. Reading materials are normally available approximately 2 to 3 weeks prior to the commencement of a unit and may be collected from the Law School Information Desk. In-house course notes are free of charge to enrolled candidates. To view a list of reading materials currently available, please visit http://sydney.edu.au/law/cstudent/coursework/reading_materials.shtml. Should a unit of study not appear on the list, please contact the lecturer of the unit.

Class size-restricted & capped units

In the case where class size is restricted or enrolments in a particular unit are capped, priority will be given to candidates enrolled in award courses at Sydney Law School. Cross-institutional and non-degree candidates will be placed on a waiting list and permitted to enrol should a place become available. It is strongly recommended that candidates finalise their enrolment in units of study as soon as possible to avoid disappointment.

The information contained in this timetable is correct at the time of publication, but is subject to change without notice. Please consult <http://sydney.edu.au/law/cstudent/coursework/units.shtml> for the latest information.
