

2012 Postgraduate Lecture Timetable

Conditions of enrolment

Despite any publication or announcement, the University may change or cancel arrangements for courses or units of study, including in respect of staffing, content or location. The University will use reasonable endeavours to update the timetable with respect to any cancellation or change. The University will not be liable to any student for any consequential loss suffered as a result of cancellation or change, including travel or other costs incurred. Please consult

<http://sydney.edu.au/law/cstudent/coursework/units.shtml> for the latest information

Semester dates (please see inside for dates of intensive units of study)

Semester 1 Monday 5 March to Friday 29 June
Semester 2 Monday 30 July to Friday 23 November

Attendance pattern

Units of study are weighted 6 credit points unless specified otherwise. Part-time students may enrol in up to 12 credit points per semester. Full-time students must enrol in at least 18 but no more than 24 credit points per semester (student visa holders must enrol in 24 credit points per semester).

Attendance requirements

Students must attend at least 70% of classes in order to satisfy class attendance requirements. Participation in all scheduled sessions of an intensive unit is essential. Exemption may only be considered by the lecturer upon satisfactory evidence of compelling grounds i.e. sudden illness or serious misadventure which occur during an intensive unit. Students with an unsatisfactory attendance record may be refused permission to undertake assessment tasks in the unit, and must therefore discontinue the unit. Students cannot request for a class to be audio/video taped.

Class format

Semester-length unit = classes held over 13 weeks within one semester (one two-hour 6-8pm evening class per week)

Intensive unit = daytime classes held over a 4-5 day period (generally between 9am and 5pm)

Fee policy

100% tuition fee liability or FEE-HELP debt will be incurred after the relevant census date below. No refund is payable for withdrawal requests received subsequent to these dates.

Availability of units of study

SJD, LLM, MGlobL and GradDipLaw students may undertake any postgraduate unit offered by Sydney Law School unless specified otherwise. Students enrolled in other award courses should refer to the Information column in this timetable to confirm the availability of a particular unit to their course. Students wishing to undertake a unit not prescribed for their course must first obtain permission by completing an Application for enrolment in a non-prescribed unit form.

Sydney Law School in Europe

Each year Sydney Law School offers a number of postgraduate units of study in Europe. For details, please refer to the Venue column in this timetable or visit:

<http://sydney.edu.au/law/fstudent/coursework/LLM/index.shtml>

MALP, MIL, MJur & MLLR supplementary lecture timetables

Students enrolled in the above award courses should refer to the supplementary lecture timetable and unit descriptions for details of non-law units of study. Information is available at <http://sydney.edu.au/law/fstudent/coursework/programs.shtml>

Students from other faculties

Students from other faculties should contact the Student Administration Office in their home faculty regarding enrolment in law units of study.

Reading materials & The University Learning Management System (LMS)

A CD of reading materials is prepared for most units of study. CDs are normally available approximately two to three weeks prior to the commencement of a unit and may be collected from the Information Desk at the New Law School or Level 12 St James Campus upon presentation of your Student Campus Card. CDs are free of charge to enrolled students. To view a list of reading materials currently available, please visit:

http://sydney.edu.au/law/cstudent/coursework/reading_materials.shtml

Reading materials may also be available online via the Law Library Course Reserve at

<http://opac.library.usyd.edu.au/search/r>

A LMS site is developed for each unit of study. Unit outlines, class handouts, PowerPoint slides, notices, and links to relevant University sites are some materials which may be available on each LMS site. LMS sites are generally accessible on the first day of classes for semester-length units. Students enrolled in intensive units will be notified of the availability of the LMS site via their University email address. Enquiries regarding Law LMS sites may be directed to law_elearning@sydney.edu.au. Students are strongly advised to check LMS sites regularly as important notices and assessment details may be posted there. To log in to the LMS, go to <http://sydney.edu.au/law> and select 'eLearning/LMS' from the 'Quick Links' drop-down menu. You will need your UniKey login to access the system.

Class size-restricted & capped units

In the case where class size is restricted or enrolments in a particular unit are capped, priority will be given to students enrolled in award courses at Sydney Law School. Cross-institutional and non-degree students will be placed on a waiting list and permitted to enrol should a place become available. It is strongly recommended that students finalise their enrolment in units of study as soon as possible to avoid disappointment.
