Conditions of Award

1. Eligibility: Applicants must:
 - Have accepted an unconditional offer of admission to a Master's by Coursework program.
 - Have a minimum IELTS or equivalent for the Master's by Coursework: 7.0 IELTS with no band below 6.0 (if required);
 - Be commencing study at the University for the first time.
 - Be a citizen of a country other than Australia or New Zealand, and may not hold permanent residency in Australia.
2. Conditions of Award: The Sydney Law School Foundation International Scholarship is worth AU$10,000 payable in two equal instalments in late March and late August in the first year of study.
3. Commencement of Degree: Scholarships are awarded on the basis that the student will commence study in the academic year for which it is offered, and for the program in which a place has been offered in the Sydney Law School.
4. Duration: The scholarship is limited to one year.
5. Leave: Scholarship holders may in special circumstances take leave of absence from their scholarship for a maximum of one semester. Students must check their visa conditions before applying for leave; and they must apply for permission in advance of taking such leave. Requests to hold the scholarship part-time will only be approved under exceptional circumstances, such as a medical condition, which limits the student's capacity to undertake full-time study. Such requests must be submitted in writing to the Sydney Law School.
6. Transferring Scholarships: These scholarships cannot be transferred from one institution to another. Nor from the Sydney Law School to another faculty in the University of Sydney.
7. Termination of Scholarships: Scholarships will be terminated:
 - if the student fails to meet the eligibility requirements
 - if the student fails to make satisfactory progress in the program
 - when the student ceases to be enrolled as a full-time student, or discontinues their study
 - if the University determines that the student is guilty of serious misconduct, including, but not limited to, having provided false or misleading information
 - if the student does not resume study at the end of a period of approved leave
 - if the student is granted permanent residency in Australia. Students must immediately advise the International Office and the Faculty Office about any changes to their visa status
8. How to Apply: If you wish to apply, please submit the application form along with:
 - 700 word personal statement
 - Reference
