This major conference explores controversial issues in contemporary investment treaty law and practice, including emerging issues in the nature of investment treaties, evolving jurisprudential trends, and intersections with international commercial arbitration, trade regulation, environmental issues and foreign investment in Asia. The program includes four plenary sessions and 14 concurrent panels with over 60 presentations from an exciting mix of senior and up-and-coming experts drawn from universities, government and private practice.

Keynote Speaker
Professor Philippe Sands QC, Matrix Chambers and University College London

Distinguished Speakers
Sir Franklin Berman QC KCMG, Essex Court Chambers, London
Professor M Sornarajah, National University of Singapore
