

Julius Stone: A Study in Influence

Helen Irving, Jacqueline Mowbray and Kevin Walton - Editors

The issues which occupied Julius Stone are still of profound importance and interest to judges and practitioners, solicitors and law teachers. The context changes, but the problems remain. ...this collection is an appropriate recognition of his continuing influence - Murray Gleeson AC

This unique collection, which demonstrates Stone's striking and continuing influence, explores his contributions to legal theory and international law in the twenty-first century and introduces new work in the fields in which Stone was both a pioneer and a leader. It celebrates Stone's life and acknowledges his impact on generations of Australian lawyers.

ISBN 978 1 86287 791 7 • HB • 272pp • rrp $99.00 DIRECT PRICE $90.00

*plus postage and handling

Visit our website and order online at www.federationpress.com.au

Julius Stone: A Study in Influence

THE FEDERATION PRESS

PO Box 45, Annandale NSW 2038 Australia

Ph: (02) 9552 2200 • Fax: (02) 9552 1681

Email: info@federationpress.com.au